Britain's Foremost Orator Audits Truman's Message suits. Signora Tarchiani's was deep

Britain's colorful Winston gray, worn with an eggshell blouse Churchill, who shared the spot- a light brown pillbox hat and light with President Truman yes- matching gloves. Madame Bonnet terday at the joint session of Con- stuck to her favorite color, black, gress, received a standing ovation in her suit, its tiny velveteen collar when he filed into the executive and a small head-hugging hat. gallery behind Mrs. Truman.

navy blue tie with white figures, Frank's suit was a medium gray, the British leader sat on Mrs. with matching off-the-face hat Truman's left in the front row and white blouse. of the gallery. Also in the party The first of the diplomatic wives ain, and Mr. John Farr Simmons, neck and a bright green scarf. Chief of Protocol of the State De-black, highlighted by a double strand of pearls and pearl eargray dress, simply cut, with matching hat with a braided brim. William P. MacCracken, all in black except for a brilliant mag-She also chose pearl earrings and a double strand of pearls. Mr. Eden and Mr. Simmons, respective Marguerite Church of Illinois.

President Truman was his usual breast pocket.

Three Cabinet wives, seated together, added a cheery note with The only member to violate colored hat with her black suit, appearing colleagues. pearl necklace and large silver lapel pin.

ing hat probably went to Mrs. choice seat with a large group of Harold Burton. The wife of the other Texans in the section im-Supreme Court Associate Justice, mediately across from the execuwho was seated in the top row, tive gallery. She wore a gray wore a brilliant chartreuse con- gaberdine suit, black hat and fection in the shape of a modified rhinestone earrings.

group were Mrs. John Snyder and dress and lavender felt hat, lands, are Mrs. Frederick H. Mrs. Robert Lovett, both in dark trimmed with flowers of the same gray, and Mrs. Jesse Donaldson, hue.

suit with black velvet collar and from North Carolina, and Mrs. tiny black hat, and Miss Lela Spessard L. Holland, wife of the

Mrs. Muchmore

reau's work here.

Speaks to Club

The black was relieved only by a Wearing a black suit and jaunty single strand of pearls. Lady were Mr. Anthony Eden, British to arrive was Madame Brugg-Foreign Secretary; Mrs. Walter mann, wife of the Swiss Ambassa-S. Gifford, wife of the United dor, who brightened her black States Ambassador to Great Brit-outfit with a large pin at her

Others in the diplomatic gal-Mr. Churchill, sitting hunched wife of the Swedish Ambassador, lery were Madame Boheman, in his chair, paid close attention to the President's speech, carefully following the text. Only once he looked up momentarily to make dian Ambassador, all in black, and some remark to Mr. Eden, on his Madame LeGallais, wife of the Mrs. Truman was dressed all in black outfit and white hat. Minister from Luxembourg, in a

First person to take a seat in rings. Mrs. Gifford wore a dark any of the galleries was Mrs.

Two bright spots of color on tively, wore a gray silk and a maroon tie with their dark suits.

Mrs. Alben Barkley, wife of the Vice President, was by herself in Vice President, was by herself in Byron, former Representative a front row seat across the aisle from Maryland, both of whom from the presidential party. She elected to wear attractive red suits wore a deep gray suit and blue Senator Margaret Chase Smith hat with broad forward-swept wore a muted blue wool dress, brim, trimmed with black velve- with the inevitable red rose pinned to her left shoulder.

dapper self, in a navy blue suit, members, Mrs. Vera Buchanan of medium blue tie with narrow white Pennsylvania and Mrs. Elizabeth stripes and carefully folded white Kee of West Virginia, sat together. handkerchief peeking out of his The former wore a navy blue suit Senator Robert A. Taft, the man who wants to be President, also was nattily attired, wearing a new-looking light gray suit and of the House, all the women mem-brightly colored hats. Mrs. Dean Speaker Sam Rayburn's rule Acheson wore a striking burnt against bringing children to the orange beret, with a black suit floor was the veteran Senator Chapman topped her black suit over and the crowd was dispersing brimmed red hat, while Mrs. daughter, Joan Tobey, onto the Charles F. Brannan wore a wheat-

Mrs. Samuel E. Bartley, visiting

Two members of the local set, Another Supreme Court wife, Mrs. Morris Cafritz and Mrs. Scott, secretary. Another Supreme Court wile, Mrs. Morris Carries and Scott, secretary.

Mrs. Stanley Reed, wore a pale lavender hat and paler lavender hat and paler lavender occasion, the former wearing a small black felt hat and black fur to promote culture and friendship.

The bride has been stationed at the Pentagon at the Office of Naval Intelligence. Also there from the Cabinet coat, the latter a black taffeta between American and the Nether-others in the executive galiery were Mrs. Eugene Carusi, in a gray lis Smith, wife of the Senator Glover, Mrs. Lunching together later in the Others in the executive galiery were Mrs. Eugene Carusi, in a gray lis Smith, wife of the Senator Glover, Mrs. J. M. W. Koning were honor guests of the officers and ladies of the Air Resupply and Stiles, a member of the White Senator from Florida. Also there Hans Kindler, Mr. William Lit- tail dance Tuesday evening. were Mrs. Stanley Reed, Senator tauer, Mrs. Demarest Lloyd, Mrs. European nations were in the Margaret Smith, Mrs. Wayne Adolphus Staton, Col. L. Corrin party at the Officers' Mess of the forefront in the diplomatic gallery. Morse, wife of the Senator from Strong, Mrs. Thomas B. Sweeny Naval Gun Factory. Occupying the first row were Sig- Oregon, and Mrs. Walter George, and Rear Admiral A. H. van nora Tarchiani, wife of the Italian wife of the Senator from Georgia. Keuren. Ambassador; Madame Bonnet, wife Senator Tom Connally of Texas. of the French Ambassador, and everybody's idea of what a United Lady Franks, wife of the British States Senator ought to look like, squired his wife to lunch, she in and universities in this area and All three wore severely-tailored a rose colored hat and blue dress. currently has a student at the University of Maryland, SHADES OF THE PAST will be evoked from 3 to 5 o'clock January 18 at the Terrace Room of the Shoreham when the Goodwill Guild celebrates the golden anniversary of the Goodwill Industries at a tea. Pictured above in costumes of the days when the Goodwill Industries were founded are Mrs. M. W. Boyer, Mrs. Oscar Chapman and Mrs. Robert LeBaron, left to right, who with other prominent sponsors of the organization, will model fashions from the good old -Star Staff Photo. days at the party.

a new-looking light gray suit and bers (actually, any one on the navy tie. Dutch Premier Ensign Cornew floor of the House) were hatless. Becomes Bride To Be Feted

The party will be held at the officiated. Speaker Sam Rayburn's sister, Mrs. Parke H. Brady. Mrs. Brady Francisco Colony Club. First honors for the most strik- here from Bonham, Texas, had a the Washington Chapter of the Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Cornew of C. Hartman. foundation.

Brooke, Dr. Paul F. Douglass, the Mrs. James L. Houghteling, Mrs. Communications Service at a cock-

The Washington chapter annually brings students to college

The Netherlands American U.S. N., of Arlington last evening Mrs. Nathan F. Twining. and beige satin blouse with a large bow under her chin. Mrs. Oscar box under her chin. Mrs. O mail to a 5:30 o'clock reception Briscoe Williams, U. S. N. R., in tions and Mrs. Donald B. Duncan, and placing him firmly on the car-found her unaffectedly delighted reception Saturday at 8 o'clock January 21 in honor of the Nether- San Franciso, Calif., at the Grace the Deputy Chief and Mrs. Lau- pet to get his footing. and white blouse with a highhrimmed red hat while Mrs.

He then brought his young grandlands Prime Minister, Dr. Willem
Cathedral. Canon Montizambert
Cathedral. Canon Montizambert
Cathedral. Canon Montizambert
Cathedral. Canon Montizambert

San Francisco, formerly of Buenos Fleet Admiral William D. Leahy Other directors are Mr. Clarence
A. Aspinwall, chairman; Mrs.
Harold J. Coolidge, vice chairman; liams of Newton, Mass. He is ances at social festivities. Mr. Winslow B. van Devanter, stationed currently at Norfolk, Va., treasurer; Mrs. John M. Begg, as-sistant treasurer, and Mrs. Nathan Hamilton, Mrs. Stanley Hornbeck, and ladies of the Air Resupply and

Additional Society News on Pages B-8, B-12 and B-14

1210 F Street N.W

Sir Rhoderick Entertained

n honor of Admiral Sir Rhoderick McGrigor, First Sea Lord and Admiral Sir Rhoderick came to life. Washington in the party of the Joey, a baby kangaroo—just Spender simply gripped him like to be able to find two sweaters Prime Minister, Mr. Winston under a year old—who barely tips an oversized guitar and strummed for her charges who are used to Churchill. This, however, is not the scales at 25 pounds, was on his back to calm him. his first visit in the Capital. He guest of honor yesterday at a was here in 1948 when he was on the cruise of the Home Fleet and Ambassador and Mrs. Percy Feeling completely at home after Joey Revives command of the maneuvers of the Western Union Powers in the Atlantic. He was knighted in 1945

Spender. And he didn't the being lionized at all.

recovered his earlier-lost poise and gaiety under the blanket, Joey took a few tentative, exploratory reappeared in fine fettle to pose hops about the room.

A skid on the polished floors

His co-operation in this project and had an important part in the Loretta North, who claims the sinking of the Turpitz during title "Miss Kangaroo of 1951." But now and again was the only thing was exemplary until a photog-included senior officers of the ly as much for them. ranking Britishers in Washington. panions arrived here Tuesday on leaps from the room.

Mrs. Robert A. Lovett were among entirely. the United States officials included Matilda Takes the Easy Way the party. Others were the Assistant Secretaries of Defense, Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Coolidge, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. McNeil and Mrs. Anna M. Rosenberg.

hair and the Assistant Secretaries circuit. Mr. and Mrs. Herbert R. Askins

Mrs. Frank Pace, jr., were others of really not up to snuff socially. He While most of the guests re-Australian Consul in New York the United States officials invited bounded into the drawing room, gretted Joey's lack of tact, one "to manufacture for the little yesterday as were Gen. and Mrs. leaped past the ambassador and lauded his action as being "what fellows." Omar Bradley, Gen. and Mrs. his wife without so much as a everyone who goes to a Wash-Hoyt S. Vandenberg, Lt. Gen. and nod, skidded on the waxed floors ington party would like to do." Ensign Sarah Elizabeth Cornew. Mrs. John E. Hull and Gen. and and fell flat on his pointed face. While Joey napped, guests at Huguenots to Meet those from the office of the host. Foxhall road home of Capt. and A reception followed at the San Others were Deputy Chief and Mrs. Francis S. Low, Deputy Chief Mrs. Parke H. Brady. Mrs. Brady Francisco Colony Club. is on the Board of Directors of The bride is the daughter of Deputy Chief and Mrs. Charles impression of Washington social did him credit for by this time week stay.

Kangaroo Cuts Capers at Embassy Party

since Miss Kangaroo is constantly to mar his perfect performance rapher suggested he and Miss The company at the reception chaperoned by Joey and his sis- until he bounded unsuspecting North pose on the kangaroo-skin yesterday numbered about 100 and ter, Matilda, the affair was equal- onto a handsome rug made en- rug.

a member of the Prime Minister's roo contest just to get a chance in the tow of the hopping kanga- patched to the cleaners. party; Fleet Admiral Sir William to come to this country, so is de- roo, who was straining his leash | Shortly thereafter Mrs. Badger Slim, chief of the British Joint lighted with her rigorous schedule to get back to the fun. Staff, and Lt. Gen. Sir Kenneth of parties, interviews and tele-McLean.

A carrot was immediately prof-set off for the Mayflower and a vision shows. But Joey and his ferred by the host and all seemed little warm milk.

In fact, Matilda took to her when Mr. Spender confessed to like most Australians." comfortable bed at the Mayflower newsmen present that he had on Both Matilda and Joey, when to yesterday's party.

roo hunts. Warm milk and a few carrots Uninhibited Guest The Secretary of the Navy and were fancy enough fare for party-Mrs. Dan A. Kimball were there, shy Matilda who happily disalso the Undersecretary of the patched her more adventurous guests for a decent length of Navy and Mrs. Francis P. White-brother to try out the hors d'oeuvre time, Joey lost interest in the fes-predicted the kangaroos would be a spirit and the Assistant Secretaries.

The Chief of Naval Operations and Mrs. William D. Fechteler were hosts at a reception last evening in the admiral's house on Observatory Circle, entertaining in honor of Admiral Sir Rhoderiek.

By Peggy Dickey

Not since Evic Robert gave a birthday party for her horse in 1936 has an animal had such a big time in Washington as yesterday.

The records don't show how seemed oblivious to the flash.

By Peggy Dickey

Not since Evic Robert gave a lot of teasing over her title but added, "I didn't care how much they ribbed me because I wanted to while she stroked him up and while she stroked his fur he seemed oblivious to the flash."

The records don't show how seemed oblivious to the flash. The records don't show how ing of cameras. Next, he went trip is cramming so much into so John the Baptist, Mrs. Robert's to the arms of Ambassador Spend-little time. After the party last Chief of Staff of the Royal British horse, reacted to his party but er for a few shots. The ambassa- night the group took off for New there's no doubt about Joey Roo's dor's kangaroo-holding technique York, where they will have a two-Joey was getting restless. Mr. While there, Mrs. Badger hopes > warm weather and get chilled when they venture out of doors.

again in 1949 when he was in Spender. And he didn't take to the ambassador's strumming, Joey After his short respite from tirely of kangaroo skins. At the This project was so strongly United States forces and high Miss North and her furry com- sight of it he bolted on towering urged, indeed, that Joey made Among them were the British the first lap of a 40,000-mile John Spender, son of the hosts very cautiously to the rug's center. Ambassador and Lady Franks, tour of this country and Canada and a student at St. Albans, went Once there, however, his nerves Admiral Sir Cyril and Lady Doug- in connection with the film "Kan- off to the rescue and, after several shattered and he lost control of las-Pennant, Air Chief Marshal garoo," shot last year in Australia. moments presumably spent in himself. The rug was then reand Lady Elliot, Lord Ismay, also Miss North entered the Kanga- soothing Joey's nerves, returned moved from the room to be dis-wrapped her pet in a blanket and

The Secretary of Defense and sister seem to be of another mind to be forgiven for soon he and When questioned later about Joey were once more posing to- his honor guest's conduct, the gether for pictures. The kangaroo Ambassador pronounced him to apparently had not been around have been "very well behaved,

Hotel and refused outright to go several occasions gone on kanga- their tour is over, will return to Washington-not to be fetedbut to make their home at the Zoo, a gift to Zoo Director Wil-tivities. And off he jogged to a live through the tour and per-Joey's arrival at the fashionable corner of the room where his scribed vitamin pills for them and Mr. and Mrs. John F. Floberg. mbassy with his trainer, Mrs. June traveling blanket lay and disapmbassy with his trainer, Mrs. June traveling blanket lay and disapmbassy with his trainer, Mrs. June traveling blanket lay and disapmbassy with his trainer, Mrs. June traveling blanket lay and disapmbassy with his trainer, Mrs. June traveling blanket lay and disapmbassy with his trainer, Mrs. June traveling blanket lay and disapmbassy with his trainer, Mrs. June traveling blanket lay and disapmbassy with his trainer, Mrs. June traveling blanket lay and disapmbassy with his trainer, Mrs. June traveling blanket lay and disapmbassy with his trainer, Mrs. June traveling blanket lay and disapmbassy with his trainer, Mrs. June traveling blanket lay and disapmbassy with his trainer, Mrs. June traveling blanket lay and disapmbassy with his trainer, Mrs. June traveling blanket lay and disapmbassy with his trainer, Mrs. June traveling blanket lay and disapmbassy with his trainer, Mrs. June traveling blanket lay and disapmbassy with his trainer, Mrs. June traveling blanket lay and disapmbassy with his trainer, Mrs. June traveling blanket lay and disapmbassy with his trainer, Mrs. June traveling blanket lay and disapmbassy with his trainer, Mrs. June traveling blanket lay and disapmbassy with his trainer, Mrs. June traveling blanket lay and disapmbassy with his trainer, Mrs. June traveling blanket lay and disapmbassy with his trainer, Mrs. June traveling blanket lay and disapmbassy with his trainer, Mrs. June traveling blanket lay and disapmbassy with his trainer, Mrs. June traveling blanket lay and disapmbassy with his trainer, Mrs. June traveling blanket lay and disapmbassy with his trainer, Mrs. June traveling blanket lay and disapmbassy with his trainer, Mrs. June traveling blanket lay and disapmbassy with his trainer, Mrs. June traveling blanket lay and disapmbassy with his trainer, Mrs. June traveling blanket lay and disapmbassy with his trainer, Mrs. June traveling blanket lay and disapmbassy with his traveling blanke

Mrs. Badger quickly recovered the party could concentrate on The Huguenot Society of Wash-with her present occupation of at the D. A. R. Chapter House, Then the newsreel cameras, traveling with two kangaroos. She 1782 Massachusetts avenue, N.W.

36-INCH COTTONS AND CHINTZ Originally 1.39

36-INCH COTTONS AND CHINTZ Originally 1.39 to 1.79

Vat-dyed and pre-shrunk Originally 1.98

48-INCH COTTON

Like These

PRINTS AND STRIPES TO

48-IN RAYON FAILLE PRINTS AND SOLIDS Some slightly irregular Regularly 2.39

48-INCH COTTON

PRINTS AND STRIPES Vat-dyed and pre-shrunk Originally 1.98

48-IN. RAYON SATINS

AND DAMASKS

Regularly 1.98 to 2.98

UPHOLSTERY SHORT ENDS

36-In. Documentary

HAND PRINTS Reproductions of Early American Hand Prints

Regularly 3.98

48-IN. RAYON ANTIQUE SATINS Regularly 2.49

48-IN. SAIL CLOTH HAND PRINTS Regularly 4.98

ALL SALES FINAL

931 F ST. N.W. Open Thursdays 12 Noon to 9 P.M. 4031 28th St. So., Shirlington OV. 6795 Open Thursday Evenings

MILL END SHOPS 19th ANNIVERSARY SALE

Over 2,000 Pairs of QUEEN QUALITY

New Fall and Winter Shoes

Consists of Black-Brown-Wine-Red-Green Suedes—Calf—Kid—Patent

REDUCED TO

$8.85

Regularly Priced $8.95 to $14.95 Save $2.00 to $5.00 Pair

Mary Roberts

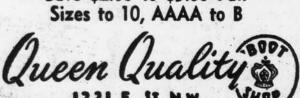

Later on the program the group in Richmond where the bride is saw pictures taken at the club's a student at Westhampton Col-Christmas party for children of lege and the bridegroom attends the Baptist Home in Bethesda. Richmond Professional Institute.

Naval Medical Center, were Mrs. The ceremony was performed by O. Claytor, Mrs. Robert the Rev. Floyd Binns and the Colby and Mrs. D. P. Dobson. Rev. W. Francis Burke of Orange Their table arrangements of white and was followed by a reception chrysanthemums and heather were well received by club mem- at the home of the bride's parents.

DRASTIC REDUCTIONS

VITALITY and DEBONAIR

$9.85

the Officers Mess of the National

Is Married Mrs. Sally Muchmore of the The marriage of Miss Mary Vir-Washington Better Business Bureau was guest speaker at the ginia Roberts, daughter of Mr. luncheon meeting yesterday of the and Mrs. Claude A. Roberts of local Navy Dental Wives Club. Somerset, Va., to Mr. Adolph She told the club about the Bu-Goiser, jr., of Orange, Va., took place December 27 in the Blue Hostesses for the affair, held at Run Baptist Church, Somerset.

The couple will make their home

Erlebacher Washington, D.C. Suit Salon Second Floor

spring arrives in a suit For under furs . . . with furs and for mid-winter travel everywhere. The jacket a new blend of curves, the skirt straight until it flares the least bit at the hem. In imported sharkskin or chiffon worsted flannel.

The First Suits of Spring Now In Both Erlebacher Stores

=1133 Connecticut Ave. N.W.=